

Workshop

Strengthening Integrity in the Military Health Sector Using the SCRM Methodology

Tunis, Republic of Tunisia
26 January 2023

Programme

Overview

In collaboration with the Ministry of National Defense in Tunisia, UNDP is organizing a workshop 'Enhancing Integrity in the Military Health Sector Using Sectoral Corruption Risk Management Methodology' in Tunis on 26 January 2023. This workshop is supported by the Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA).

This workshop is part of a series of consultations between the program and the Ministry in the field of governance enhancement and anti-corruption. This follows the participation of the Ministry's governance unit in a national workshop organized by UNDP on 8 March 2022 "Corruption prevention: Integrating corruption risk management in the governance units in Tunisia" where the ministry officially requested collaboration. A working meeting was then held on 15 September 2022, between officials of the ministry and UNDP experts to discuss specific areas for joint work.

The workshop aims to enhance the capacities of participants in applying UNDP's methodology on Corruption Risk Management at the sectoral level. This involves a detailed presentation of its content with a focus on practical aspects, leading to discussions between UNDP and the Ministry regarding future steps and relevant cooperation programs.
